IV. RESULTS AND DISCUSSIONS

The authority in DPR Representatives People/Regions in formation of Regulations laws and regulations not be separated from aspects law administration state Element authority is always associated with element/element "authority" or "position" or "position" by because usage in of must distinguished between that responsibility position, principle responsibility personal. In sense that responsibility position must distinguished from responsibility the be In law, authority relates to power3. Power has meaning which is to i, because power is owned by executive legislative, judicial is power i Power constitutes element essential of an state in process administration of government in addition to elements, namely: a); b) authority (authority); c) justice; d) honesty; e) conservation policies; and f) virtue. Power is the core of administration of country so that country in state moves (de staat beweging) so that country can take part, work capacity achievers, and perform serve citizens. Therefore, State must given power Power according Miriam Budiardjo is ability person or group people human to influence behavior person or group other such that behavior of of to corresponds with desire and destination of person or country5. Power makes regulations legislation also is power attached attribute to bi legislature as representative all people who are in in field law public. One of powers organ state is authority DPR to the or / of of authority attributive is , because given by UUD 1945 for DPR and Law Law Number 32 Year 2004 concerning Government Regional DPRD This therefore its must use be carried based on principle or principle accountability, principle transparency so really to it that which out In relation to the formation of Perda authority owned by DPRD is authority attributive because authority is granted by law particular Law Undnag Number, Year 2004 concerning Government Regional. authority Perda course not be separated from authority which owned by executive because jointly only can formed be DPR the of that can Therefore an, relationship between two institutions prosu called as relationship partnership no there was Perda DPRD which formed by without with is these Government, i is no DPRD without i

If refers to theory authority as described above, then in system constitutional Indonesian authority formation Perda not lie of power DPRD but are in power two institutions or two organ at once, namely in authority DPRD and Government Regional Because does not the i form Government which only carried by DPRD have authority Theoretically the designation legislature to DPR/D, if refers to teachings Trias Politics actually less precise, i with with authority formation laws in Perda, always the formation of which i the two institutions/ organs is Quoting opinion H. D. Stout, authority is understanding which comes from law organization government which can explain as whole rules a as with acquisition and use authority government by subject law law public in in relation of public According to Bagir Manan, authority in language law is not same as power macht) power only describes right to do or not do In law, authority same time means rights and obligations (rechten). In relation to autonomy
